

Best Doctor AND Best Teacher

*Dr. Lohman with resident doctors
Anuradha Paturi and Pranjal Thakuria*

As the great Yogi Berra once said, "it was déjà vu all over again" for Dr. Lawrence Lohman, who was acknowledged for the 12th consecutive year as one of "The Best Doctors in America." This designation means that Dr. Lohman was chosen by fellow doctors as one of the specialists they themselves would recommend to a friend or loved one needing eye care. Additionally, Dr. Lohman was honored in Cleveland Magazine, Northern Ohio Live, and Akron Life & Leisure as one of the area's "Top Docs."

On May 30, 2008, Dr. Lohman was presented with the "Teacher of the Year" award from the ophthalmology residents at Summa Health Systems. Congratulations, Dr. Lohman!
